

Applied Data Science Capstone Project

The Battle of Neighborhoods

1. Introduction

India is a country with varied cuisines. Given the diversity in soil, climate, ethnic groups, cultures and occupations of people in various parts of India, these cuisines vary substantially- making use of locally available spices, herbs, fruits and vegetables. Indian cuisines have influenced many other cuisines across the globe. Even the global cuisines that have been brought into India have been given a local twist. This makes India a preferred spot for food connoisseurs around the globe.

This project was aimed at analysing the venues in the capital cities of India so as to find the cuisines of popular restaurants located there. This would help the food connoisseurs plan their trip across India based on their cuisine preferences and save them the trouble of having to search individual cities for the cuisines served there.

2. Data Description

The following sources of data were used for the project-

1. The list of the capital cities of India was scraped from the Wikipedia page- "https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_state_and_union_territory_capitals_in_India".

2. Python's Geopy package was used to get the latitudes and longitudes of the capital cities of India.
3. The Foursquare API was used to explore the capital cities of India.

3. Methodology

The following steps were taken to analyse the venues in the capital cities of India for finding the cuisines of popular restaurants located there-

1. A dataframe containing the list of capital cities of India was formed by scraping the Wikipedia page- List of state and union territory capitals in India (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_state_and_union_territory_capitals_in_India). The data from the "Administrative capital" column of the table shown in Figure 1 was used for the analysis.
2. Python's Geopy package was used to add the latitudes and longitudes of the capital cities of India to the dataframe.

Figure 6. Dataframe containing the clusters as well as the top ten restaurant types of each capital city of India.

5. Discussion

From the results obtained, it can be inferred that Indian Cuisine is available in at least one of the popular restaurants in the capital cities falling under cluster 0 and Fast Food is available in at least one of the popular restaurants in the capital cities falling under cluster 1. The only popular restaurant in the capital cities falling under cluster 2 is a general restaurant while a variety of popular restaurants like- American, Indian, Italian, Northeast Indian, Dumpling, Himalayan, Tibetan, Mughlai, Punjabi, Chinese etc. can be visited by the food connoisseurs visiting the cities in cluster 3. As for the capital cities falling under cluster 4, Asian Cuisine can be found in at least one of the popular restaurants located there.

6. Conclusion

The map shown in Figure 7 was obtained using the Folium library and can be used to visualize the clusters of capital cities of India based on the cuisines served by the popular restaurants located there.

The red dots represent the capital cities lying in cluster 0 while the purple dots represent the capital cities lying in cluster 1. The blue dots represent the capital cities lying in cluster 2. The capital cities lying in cluster 3 are marked in green while those in cluster 4 are marked in orange.

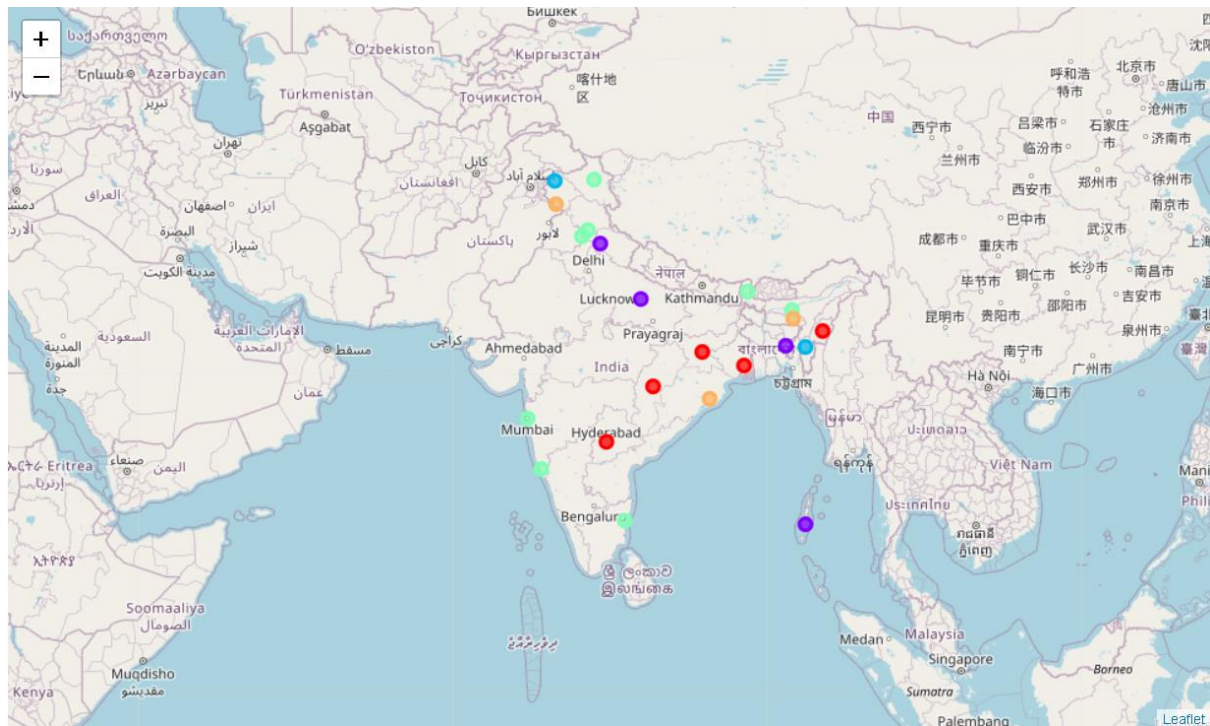

Figure 7. Folium map depicting the clusters of capital cities of India based on the cuisines served by the popular restaurants located there.

The food connoisseurs can use this map as a reference to plan their trip across India based on their cuisine preferences, thereby avoiding the trouble of having to search individual cities for the cuisines served there.
